38932

NOTICE,

To all whom it may concern.

Masters of Vessels entering Ports or Places of Entry under my charge, will be required strictly to comply with the demands of the Law. Goods may not be unladen otherwise than by a proper permit. None but original Bills of Imports duly certified, will be received for Entry, and when suspected of fraud, must be sworn to.

All Imports subject to the strictest ex- amination, and all duties and fees must be paid at the time of entry, before Goods can be removed. NO EXEMPT CASES! Transgressors must abide the consequences.

LICENSES

For Auctioneers can be had when applied for as the Law directs. Persons acting as such without License, will have the Law enforced against them.

George J. Ryerse,

Collector, Port Dover.

Talbot District.

(Printed at the Gazette Office, London, Upper Canada.)